

Exploring men's alcohol consumption in the context of becoming a father: A scoping review

Alcohol Occasionals 2021

Scottish Health Action on Alcohol Problems (SHAAP), the Scottish Alcohol Research Network (SARN) and the Institute of Alcohol Studies (IAS) warmly invite you to join us online for the second Alcohol Occasionals event of 2021, featuring a presentation on the subject of alcohol and fatherhood from Dr Elena Dimova (Glasgow Caledonian University).

Dr Elena Dimova

The webinar will be hosted online using the Zoom platform, and registrants will receive a link to join.

Alcohol Occasionals are free to attend and open to all, and our audience is diverse, including academics/researchers, healthcare professionals, policy-makers and members of the public.
